Cleaning up is not fun for township road commissioner

A local official is wondering why people can't clean up after themselves.

Grant Township road commissioner Jim Crouch will spend part of this week cleaning up after those who have used the rural area as a private garbage dump

"It's an example of man's inhumanity to man," Crouch said.

The problem has been especially bad at what is commonly called "Party Bridge" over Steely Creek on County Road 4000 North, Crouch said.

There, one can find deer carcasses laying in the creek, along with a couch, some tires and appliances.

While the landfill no longer accepts tires or appliances,

Crouch said the city of Hoopeston schedules days to pick up such items and other means are also available to dispose of them besides dumping them in rural areas.

The problem has not gone unnoticed by other officials. "The North Fork River Project people are kind of getting on us about it and rightly so," Crouch said.

Because road workers are responsible for the roads and rights-of-way in the township, they are the ones left to clean up the mess.

Crouch is asking people not to dump garbage for reasons other than how it looks. "Not only does it look bad, but it's environmentally bad," he said. "It's bad for the community."

Briefly

Luminaria available

The Grant Township Food Cupboard is selling luminaria to be displayed Christmas eve. A set of six candles and sacks is $3 and can be purchased Monday through Friday at the Grant Township offices, 525 S. Market, and Saturday at the Hoopeston municipal building from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Food for Fines

The Hoopeston Public Library is helping the Grant Township Food Cupboard by allowing library patrons to pay overdue fines with items needed by the food cupboard.

Items needed include unopened packages of paper towels, toilet tissue, Kleenex or Puffs facial tissues, paper plates and napkins.

The only food items needed at this time are saltine crackers and soups.

Each item will count as one dollar towards payment of overdue fines only. The program ends Dec. 30.
